

Racamtech, a Chinese company founded in 2018, is a technology-based enterprise specialize in Automotive Safety Electronics, High-End Vehicle Monitoring System and Advanced Driver Assistant System. "Innovation leads development, Technology achieves the future" is the vision of the company. Our company's core team has many years of experience in designing and developing automotive safety electronic products. Thanks to the insisted on independent research and continuous innovation, we has explore self-owned brand call "RACAMTECH". The products include vehicle video monitors, cameras, 360 Around View System, Blind Spot Detection System and so on. Our products are widely used in heavy equipment, commercial vehicles, cranes, lift trucks, forklifts, municipal vehicles, agricultural and forestry machinery and other fields. In addition, during the production process, we continuously monitor each section. After production, we have a number of quality control tests for our products, including waterproof, high or low temperature, vibration and aging. In order to maintain a high level of skill and quality at the stages of design, production, testing, packaging, delivery and even after-sales service, we train our staff on a regular basis.

In a word, We are a reliable professional OEM manufacturer and technology innovator with strong research and development capability. We will do our best to provide high quality and value products to our customers all around the world. We sincerely invite you to have a visit on our website www.racamtech.com You are welcome to contact us with any questions.